TECHNICAL REPORTS & PAPERS:

Methodological Guidelines for the Gender Analysis of National Population and Housing Census Data, 2014. Subject matter demography consultant hired to write United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) technical training manual which serves as a how-to guide for using a gendered perspective in methods and statistical analyses on country-level census data. I led a training workshop using a draft copy of the document in New York City with members of country-level statisticians in December 2011. Feedback from this workshop was used to improve the final product. This document may be accessed at the following URL: <http://www.unfpa.org/sites/default/files/pub-pdf/141006-UNFPA-GenderManual2014-02-SCREEN.pdf>

I developed three different study abroad opportunities for University of Oklahoma students to study in four different Sub-Saharan African countries (to Senegal in 2006, to Togo and Ghana in 2011, and to Tanzania in 2013). For each study program, I developed a country-specific course on society, culture and economic development, as well as being responsible for the financial and logistical details of the study experience.

- Summer 2013: Developed Journey to Tanzania and Zanzibar Island with Dr. Prichard in Honors College. Twenty OU undergraduate and graduate students to take Local Communities and Global Development Agendas course with Dr. Bass. Students stay in African host families and take formal Swahili language instruction from the TCDC in Arusha. Video from this experience: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SWrIbz2x53M&list=UUe_4D5sAauvsAzUgmIEksgw
- Summer 2011: Developed Expedition to Africa Summer Study Program to Togo and Ghana. Ten OU undergraduate and graduate students took Cultures and Societies of West Africa from Dr. Bass, while studying three different colonial legacies and subsequent events in these two West African countries. Students stayed in host family environment. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ewLR71xmWpU>
- Summer 2006: Developed Summer Study in Senegal Program. Dakar, Senegal. Nine undergraduate students took two courses, Social Change and Development (from Dr. Bass) and Wolof language (ACI Baobab Institute). Students stayed in host family environment.
